

LIGHTNING TRAINED YANKEES ARE RIGHT THERE WITH "THE PUNCH"AMERICAN SOLDIERS PROVE THEIR METTLE
IN EVERY CONTEST AND TAKE TERRIBLE
TOLL OF HUNS KILLING OVER 1000
WIN NEW LAURELS ON THE MARNE

American forces in the thick of the Marne fighting continued to cover themselves with glory, according to the latest dispatches. The town of Neuilly was taken by the Germans from the Americans in the fourth of a series of hard blows, but before they could consolidate the Yankees counter-attacked and ejected the entire enemy force. Latest advices said that the Americans were firmly holding the town.

The British reported minor enemy attacks which were repulsed. French troops are holding firm at all points on the Marne.

United Press dispatches from Henry Wood reported that the Americans killed at least 1,000 Germans at Chateau Thierry, according to estimates of the French military units. The Yankees poured tens of thousands of shells into the town. The streets are filled with German bodies.

London, June 5.—An attempted enemy raid southeast of Morlencourt (between the Ancre and the Somme) under cover of heavy bombardment, was repulsed. The enemy left prisoners behind, General Haig reported today. North of the Scarpe and the Lys rivers, in Merris and the Ypres-Comiens canal section hostile artillery fire was active last night.

Paris, June 5.—The Germans continued to pound the Allied defenses on the western portion of the Marne battle front and are held at all points, the French war office announced today. Particularly violent enemy attacks were made north of Chezy and south of the river Ourcq (near where American units are reported stationed). All were staged with heavy Boche losses.

FIRE DEPARTMENT BAND WILL BE ORGANIZED THURSDAY EVENING

The organization of the Clearfield Fire department band was discussed at a meeting of prospective band members held in the borough building last evening. Some twenty or more men were present and all expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of the project and willing to do their bit toward giving Clearfield another up to date musical organization.

Pof. Oscar W. Schaeffer, member of the faculty of the Susquehanna College of Music and an experienced musician and band leader, has been secured to take charge of the new organization and will devote his time and energies toward whipping the material at hand into line and giving Clearfield the character of band she expects and deserves.

The band members are going into this organization filled with the spirit of municipal or town pride, realizing the necessity for the right kind of a musical organization in our town.

It will take some money to finance the enterprise and they feel that their service and sacrifice will be appreciated by our business men and public spirited citizens generally and that when they show their mean business and can "deliver the goods" there will be no question about the financial support.

Aside from the necessity for a good band, this movement will mean much toward the musical education of our young men, as it will furnish the opportunity for the young man musically inclined to further his bent in this direction and repay with his service the outlay necessary to maintain the band.

Clearfield has long had the reputation of being a first-class band town and has been the home of many good bands during the passing years. This organization aims to put the old town back in the running. A meeting for organization will be held in the Firemen's Hall, Borough building, tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock. The following members are available and desired for the new organization, and any other musicians whose names have been missed are asked to attend the meeting and join the band:

KELLYTOWN LICENSE
GRANTED MONDAY

Judge Bell granted the license of Andrew Yavorsky, for the hotel of the Maple Run Coal company at Kellytown on Monday morning last and the hotel was opened for business on Tuesday morning. Mr. Yavorsky is an experienced hotel man having held a license at Ramey for a number of years.

The Kellytown license has been pending since last license court. A stiff fight was put up against the application by the Dry Federation which was represented on the ground by John Boag, Jr., of Boardman, who claimed the license would be highly detrimental to that community.

Because General Manager Forsyth had neglected to insert the name of the Maple Run Coal company as the owners of the property in the application, the legality of the petition was attacked by the attorneys for the Dry Federation. A motion was made by Reed, Boulton & Forsyth who represented the petition asking leave to amend same and correct the defect but this was objected to. Both sides presented their arguments to the court and nothing more was heard of it until Landlord Yavorsky appeared at the Prothonotary's office some time Monday and took out his permit to dispense the ardent and entertain the traveling public. Judge Bell stated that he would file his opinion at a later date.

MANY ACCENTS BUT ALL ARE AMERICANS

With the American Expeditionary Forces at the Front May 10.—By Mail —"You ought to go down and talk to the boys who just came in from the trenches where they beat off a Boche raiding party four times their number. They're down in the ruins of the next village, sharpening their bayonets and getting ready for more. They're all kinds of nationalities, that crowd, and you can hardly understand some of them when they attempt to speak English."

Taking the lieutenant's tip, the victorious doughboys were visited. They were resting in dugouts and ruins, talking over their latest fight, and exchanging ideas as to the best way of killing Germans. More than half of them spoke broken English, and the accents were many. It required the "common cause" for them to understand each other.

One young private who had accounted for four Germans two nights before, resented being asked his nationality. "I'm Italian born, but good American now. I figured it's about time we show damn Kaiser where to head in at, so I join the army." He was one of a number of Italians in the group.

Another big strapping chap admitted he was born in Ireland, but insisted he was American, not Irish. His closest pal through the thick and thin of battle was a Pole. Russia, the Balkans, Sweden and Norway were represented in this small group of doughboys.

One man explained with difficulty he volunteered because Russia quit, and he took it as a personal duty to do his best to offset his native country's failure.

Officers were enthusiastic in telling of the loyalty and devotion of these naturalized Americans. In the group were a number of men of German parentage, all of whom had accounted for themselves well in battle. The universal reason for joining the army was to "lick Germany good" which from their point of view was "making the world safe for democracy." America's wish was their command, as they hid in those ruins from German shells and sharpened their bayonets for more Germans.

WARN AGAINST DISEASE GERMS

Washington, June 5.—That the Germans might have brought disease germs to this country is the belief of some navy officials today. Officially warned all survivors who were on U-boats not to give away as souvenirs any food or other article given them by U-boat commanders. It was pointed out that German sailors took into Spain terms of the strange epidemic which is sweeping that country.

YOKOHOMA MAID WAS HUGE SUCCESS

The Eighth Grade commencement attracted a "capacity" audience to the High school auditorium last night to witness the portrayal of the "Yokohoma Maid" by the pupils under the direction of Miss Lucille McGee. The pretty little playlet was in most capable hands and every feature of the performance was extremely pleasing and most charmingly executed. The Eighth graders acquitted themselves throughout in a highly creditable manner.

The costumes were fine, the choruses immense and the audience showed their appreciation by vociferous applause.

The cast follows:
O Sing A Song A Japanese heiress Catherine Moore
Kissimce, Her companion Veda McLaughlin
Tung Waga, Her nurse Elmina Graham
Hilda and Stella, American tourists Frances Kennedy
Sara Summers
Takasi, The Herald George Rees
Muna Yo, a policeman Wm Brown
Ah No, a hyphenated Chinese Harry Katzman
Fattedo, the mayor Kenneth Wissinger
Knogudi, his secretary Thoburn Collins
Harry Cortese, American lawyer Frederick Staver

While all the actors were letter perfect in their parts, Kenneth Wissinger as "Fattedo" was unanimously voted worthy of special mention.

NURSE'S TRAINING SCHOOL GRADUATES

The commencement exercises of the Clearfield Hospital's training school for nurses will be held in the High school auditorium Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Great preparations are being made for the event and all who can possibly do so should attend.

There are seven young ladies in the class. Dr. W. B. Henderson of Phillipsburg will deliver the address to the class and the diplomas will be presented by H. B. Powell, president of the board of directors of the hospital.

Prof. Van Osten's High school chorus will sing and a general invitation is extended to everybody to attend. Admission free.

WAR'S DEADLY TOLL

Washington, June 5.—General Pershing today reported 110 casualties to the war department divided as follows: killed in action 39, dead from wounds 13, dead from disease 6, dead from accidents 3, wounded severely 47, missing in action 2. Five officers are included in the killed in action list. Joseph Schubert of Ford City died of wounds and Joseph Rugh of Emlenton, Pa., died of disease.

TEN YEAR AVERAGE OF WHEAT CROP
NOW BROKEN

Washington, June 5.—A bumper wheat crop big enough to break the ten year record was reported today by the food administration officials on receipt of favorable reports from all parts of the United States. The actual yield of both winter and spring wheat will exceed the Department of Agriculture's estimate. Harvesting has begun in California, Texas, Kansas and other parts of the south, and will extend northward through the wheat belt. Winter wheat crop will reach six million bushels if bad weather does not set in just at harvest time.

DUBOIS SOLDIER SUICIDES

According to brief advices received late last night from Richmond, Va., George Trostiller, the young draftee whose death was announced in the DuBois Courier yesterday morning, committed suicide at Petersburg on Sunday.

Like Albert showing flashes of his old-time slugging. There was a time a few years back when the Dodgers' first baseman was a whale with the stick.

SECRETARY DANIELS STANDS PAT
GERMAN U-BOAT RAID DISCOUNTEDMUST MAINTAIN
GENERAL OFFENSIVE

By Arthur E. Mann
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, May 18. (By Mail.)—Germany is always on the offensive. When Hindenburg and Ludendorff aren't throwing their troops against the Allied line in France and Belgium the enemy propaganda agents in Switzerland are besieging neutral and Allied opinion with insidious stories of the Central powers' peaceful intentions.

The latter campaign is being reopened with renewed vigor, according to official reports. Anticipating the enforced cessation of the West front battle, Germany and Austria have sent additional legions of peace mongers to Switzerland and these are now engaged in the peace "offensive".

Emperor Karl is personally represented by a very active agent named Bamberger, who is concentrating principally on Italy. He is industriously putting out stories that the much advertised prospective Austrian offensive will take place only if Italy refuses to consider "reasonable" terms from her enemies. So far he is not meeting with much success.

The Italians are confident of victory if the Austrians attack. Their positions have been splendidly organized both for defense and offense and this time there are hardly likely to be any Germans to assist the forty Austrian Divisions on the line.

Same Old Game

The German agents are playing the same old game of putting out fanciful peace terms. The latter include the evacuation of Belgium and France, the return of the German colonies, no indemnities, and a discussion of the future of French Lorraine. These are more or less hackneyed propositions, but there is an interesting addition which is rather significant.

The agents say Germans want to discuss the question of a "revision" of the Brest-Litovsk treaty.

There is sufficient evidence already at hand to prove that Germany has no desire to "revise" the treaty against herself if she can help it, but the political leaders are beginning to worry about the unfavorable impression the treaty has made not only throughout the rest of the world but within the Central empires as well. The German idea is to get a revision of the treaty which will be sanctioned by the Allies in order to strengthen the Pan-German and military parties against the growing opposition of the liberal and radical Reichstag group and particularly of Austria-Hungary.

Worship Ludendorff

Another new feature of the German propaganda is the glorification of Ludendorff. Hindenburg, who has in the past been advertised as the rough, overbearing military hero, is now pushed into the background, and Ludendorff brought forward, not primarily as a great soldier but as a great statesman—a second Bismarck. The German game here is very evident. The Junkers hope, when they have no further use for Ludendorff as a fighter, to introduce him into politics as the man who will negotiate a "strong" peace for Germany. If he can't altogether help them out of the military mess they want him to stand between them and the more moderate German politicians.

The Allies' reply to these latest peace efforts of the Central powers is simply a reiteration of their previous replies:

"Germany knows pretty well what our terms are. If she has any concrete proposals to make, she must put them forward through the legitimate diplomatic channels in plain, unmistakable terms. Until then, war!"

DUTY OF AMERICAN NAVY TO SAFELY
MAINTAIN LINE OF COMMUNICATIONS
WITH OUR ALLIES OVER THERE

BELIEVED NO SUPER SUBS HERE

America snapped its fingers at the German submarine threat today. Secretary Daniels issued a statement in which he made it plain that the United States considers as its prime duty at sea to maintain communication lines between this country and Europe. Secretary McAdoo announced a reduction in insurance rates which was 25c per $100, to 15c per $100 on the lives of masters and crews of marine vessels. At the same time it was said that the war risk insurance rate would not be raised.

New York, June 5.—Bringing thrilling stories of Prussian piracy at America's very gate, the weather beaten schooner Eva B. Douglass came in through the fog at New York harbor today with 250 survivors of the steamer Carolina, sunk off Cape May. One hundred fifty-six passengers and 94 of the crew were aboard, including Captain Barbour, and ten American army officers from the military training school at San Juan, Porto Rico. It was towed in by tugs which guarded the vessel for fear the German raiders would attack the rescue ship. Automobiles were waiting for the arrival of the schooner. They were volunteered by the Women's Motor Corps. The Red Cross took charge of the survivors who were taken to hospitals and hotels. Some of those who were weak collapsed. Sunday night a terrific storm came up and sank one of the lifeboats. Nineteen of the 35 in the boat survived. The Carolina complement is now believed accounted for with the exception of the 16 lost in the storm and 16 more not yet checked up.

The steamer Samuel C. Mengel arrived in New York today with a report that a vessel was sunk 175 miles off New York on Sunday. The hull of the steamer Dsauss floated in on the shore at Delaware cape. Officials are convinced after carefully examining the reports of survivors that the Germans are using only 800 and 1,000-ton submarines on this side of the Atlantic and are unable to carry on any protracted offensive against shipping so far from their bases. The eyes of the coast defense many squadrons of airplanes in groups of eight—flew over the stretch of sea in the search for raiders. Equipped with machine guns they are prepared to deal drastically with the submarines. They are closely watching for submarines that will come up for air.

Fears for the safety of the crew and passengers of the steamer Carolina were swept away today when the schooner Eva B. Douglass slipped into New York harbor early this morning with 250 passengers and crew. Sixteen were lost in a storm and 16 others are still unaccounted for.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED?

(By United Press)

Washington, June 5.—More than 1,000,000 young men are being added to the nation's organized fighting strength today, in the second draft registration since the war began.

Every young man who has become 21 years of age since the registration of a year ago, must register. Exceptions are those already in the armed service.

It is estimated registration may reach 1,200,000, and of this number probably 750,000 will be added to the army.

COLORED MEN CALLED

Washington, June 5.—Forty thousand more men were summoned for general military service today to enlist between June 20 and 25. The men called today, all negroes, bring the total number summoned to the colors in June to more than 300,000. The call includes 500 from Pennsylvania to Camp Sherman and 1,000 from Virginia to Camp Sherman.

MANUAL TRAINING
EXHIBIT IS FINE

There is an interesting exhibit of the handiwork of the Manual Training classes of the Clearfield High school on display at the Manual training rooms of the new building.

Those who are interested in this phase of school work will find an exhibit of more than passing worth. Victorias, desks and tables made by the older students and bird houses, waste baskets and the like, the product of the younger students all testify to the painstaking care with which Frank Wentzel, the manual training instructor, has guided his charges during the year just closing.

The exhibit opened this morning and will continue until tomorrow noon.

A. B. Read left last evening for Baltimore to visit his son Lt. Stayman Reed at Camp Meade, who expects to leave shortly for overseas service.

A NEW KIND OF PENALTY

A number of business places failed to close their doors on Memorial Day in DuBois and the city council has struck back at these men by deciding to enforce the blue laws. Seems to us a visit from the members of the War Council with a demand that the doors be closed would have been more to the point.

WASHINGTON'S VIEW

Although there were no Y. M. C. A. or similar social welfare agencies at work during the American revolution, the commanding officers of that period were not unmindful of the advantages to be gained by providing wholesome recreation for the soldiers and protecting their morals. In his instructions to his officers, Washington said: "Let vice and immorality of every kind be discouraged as much as possible; and as a chaplain is allowed to each regiment, see that the men regularly attend divine worship. Gaming of every kind is expressly forbidden, as being the foundation of evil, and the cause of many a brave and gallant officer's ruin. Games of exercise for amusement may not only be permitted, but encouraged."

BAKER REVERSED

Statements to the effect that the war is three thousand miles away are no longer in order by our Secretary of War. We imagine we heard Kaiser Bill chuckle when our Secretary spoke in such assuring terms recently and Bill certainly had his little joke when he launched the super submarines on their mission over here to teach our Secretary of War that war was indeed right at our very front door. There would seem to be no criticism attached to the fact that the submarines were able to get to our coast and do the damage that they have wrought and the shelling of the small craft would indicate that they were disappointed in their real purpose which no doubt was the sinking of transports. Germany has caused a great property loss but by her act has taught us a lesson, including our sanguinary Secretary of War who viewed the war with a long distance telescope.

PATRIOTIC PAYMENT OF FAIR PREMIUMS

Washington, D. C., June 5.—Why not give War Savings Stamps to prize winners at agricultural fairs, asks the Department of Agriculture. The Bureau of Agriculture of the Lake Charles, Louisiana, Chamber of Commerce has suggested that all premiums given by State county and other fairs this year be paid in War Savings Stamps. A resolution expressing that proposal was recently adopted by this Bureau of Agriculture and is being sent to all Federal and State officials interested and to the proper representatives of fair associations in every part of the country. The idea is meeting with hearty approval.

POSTMASTER JUMPS HIS JOB

Syracuse, N. Y., June 5.—So impressed with the U. S. Marine recruiting literature sent him to give to prospective applicants was Carl H. Hamlin, postmaster at Helena, N. Y., that he forsook his job and came here, where he enlisted himself in the Marine Corps.

Thus the Marine Corps lost a recruiter, Helena lost a postmaster, Recruiter Hamlin lost his fee for the enlistment of applicant Hamlin, but the Marines gained a patriotic recruit.

OBITUARY

GEORGE BRETT

George Brett, one of Bradford township's substantial citizens, passed away at his home in Woodland Tuesday morning, June 4, 1918, at 3 o'clock aged 78 years, 7 months and 20 days, following a general breakdown incident to his advanced age.

The deceased was a native of County Sligo, Ireland, and came to this country in 1866, locating in Woodland in 1870. Some years later he purchased the farm on Woodland road adjoining the H. M. Kurtz estate farm, and resided there until about two years ago when failing health compelled him to retire and he moved his family again to Woodland.

George Brett was of the rugged type of manhood, a pentameter of the old school. Sober, industrious, God-fearing, he was scrupulously honest and enjoyed the unbounded respect and esteem of all who knew him. He served as tax collector of Bradford township for many years and was always faithful to every trust. He was devoutly religious and a consistent member of the First Presbyterian church Clearfield for many years and on his return to Woodland affiliated with the Presbyterian church of Bigler.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIER BOYS

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF ELK HOSE CO.

Mr. Leslie Hopfer

Dear Brother—I can find time now to write you a few lines letting you know I am still living and well and hope yourself and all the Boys in the company are the same.

I received the boxes you sent me and sure was glad to get them. The Xmas box was a wonder and the box of tobacco came just in time, as we were going up to the front the next day. We have been up at the front eight weeks and it sure is an interesting place here. Towns are complete wrecks and not a soul living in them but soldiers. I have seen soldiers from almost all the allied countries and find them a real nice set of men, and we find lots of them that talk "American" good.

The Salvation Army, Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. are just behind the third line trenches and work there day and night. The Y. M. C. A. you can find wherever there are soldiers and they are doing great work.

It used to be a rare sight for we people in old Clearfield to see on airplane, but here they are very common. We have some of the Liberty Motor air craft and they are wonderful.

How is our old Fire Chief J. D. Connelly? Still on the job as usual? Gosh, Leslie, I sure would like to see all the Boys and to come and spend an evening at the fire house again. I am hoping for the day when I can do it again.

It will do we fellows good to see a real street with honest to goodness houses and auto, on it for here everything is military wherever we look. The houses are all of stone and no sidewalks and most of the people wear wooden shoes. We can hear them coming for a block or two away. The jeeps there people use are about all hauled by two or four horses hitched tandem.

Well, I guess I will close for this time, hoping to hear from some of you real soon, I remain

Yours very truly

WANTS PAY FOR AUTO DAMAGES

Suit was entered in the Prothonotary's office this morning by Attorney A. H. Woodward in which he seeks to recover $200 from William Clee, of Glen Richey for Benjamin Brown, also of Lawrence township on account of damage to the latter's automobile. The damage was caused by a rear end collision when Clee attempted to pass Brown's car on a hill leading from the river below Curwensville. The wreck occurred May 24th last and the necessary repairs to the Brown car amounted to $107.50.

LIGHTNING TRAINED YANKEES ARE RIGHT THERE WITH "THE PUNCH"

AMERICAN SOLDIERS PROVE THEIR METTLE IN EVERY CONTEST AND TAKE TERRIBLE TOLL OF HUNS KILLING OVER 1000 WIN NEW LAURELS ON THE MARNE

American forces in the thick of the Marne fighting continued to cover themselves with glory, according to the latest dispatches. The town of Neuilly was taken by the Germans from the Americans in the fourth of a series of hard blows, but before they could consolidate the Yankees counter-attacked and ejected the entire enemy force. Latest advices said that the Americans were firmly holding the town.

The British reported minor enemy attacks which were repulsed. French troops are holding firm at all points on the Marne.

United Press dispatches from Henry Wood reported that the Americans killed at least 1,000 Germans at Chateau Thierry, according to estimates of the French military units. The Yankees poured tens of thousands of shells into the town. The streets are filled with German bodies.

London, June 5.—An attempted enemy raid southeast of Morlencourt (between the Ancre and the Somme) under cover of heavy bombardment, was repulsed. The enemy left prisoners behind, General Haig reported today. North of the Scarpe and the Lys rivers, in Merris and the Ypres-Comiens canal section hostile artillery fire was active last night.

Paris, June 5.—The Germans continued to pound the Allied defenses on the western portion of the Marne battle front and are held at all points, the French war office announced today. Particularly violent enemy attacks were made north of Chezy and south of the river Ourcq (near where American units are reported stationed). All were staged with heavy Boche losses.

FIRE DEPARTMENT BAND WILL BE ORGANIZED THURSDAY EVENING

The organization of the Clearfield Fire department band was discussed at a meeting of prospective band members held in the borough building last evening. Some twenty or more men were present and all expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of the project and willing to do their bit toward giving Clearfield another up to date musical organization.

Pof. Oscar W. Schaeffer, member of the faculty of the Susquehanna College of Music and an experienced musician and band leader, has been secured to take charge of the new organization and will devote his time and energies toward whipping the material at hand into line and giving Clearfield the character of band she expects and deserves.

The band members are going into this organization filled with the spirit of municipal or town pride, realizing the necessity for the right kind of a musical organization in our town.

It will take some money to finance the enterprise and they feel that their service and sacrifice will be appreciated by our business men and public spirited citizens generally and that when they show their mean business and can "deliver the goods" there will be no question about the financial support.

Aside from the necessity for a good band, this movement will mean much toward the musical education of our young men, as it will furnish the opportunity for the young man musically inclined to further his bent in this direction and repay with his service the outlay necessary to maintain the band.

Clearfield has long had the reputation of being a first-class band town and has been the home of many good bands during the passing years. This organization aims to put the old town back in the running. A meeting for organization will be held in the Firemen's Hall, Borough buildings, tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock. The following members are available and desired for the new organization, and any other musicians whose names have been missed are asked to attend the meeting and join the band:

KELLYTOWN LICENSE GRANTED MONDAY

Judge Bell granted the license of Andrew Yavorsky, for the hotel of the Maple Run Coal company at Kellytown on Monday morning last and the hotel was opened for business on Tuesday morning. Mr. Yavorsky is an experienced hotel man having held a license at Ramey for a number of years.

The Kellytown license has been pending since last license court. A stiff fight was put up against the application by the Dry Federation which was represented on the ground by John Boag, Jr., of Boardman, who claimed the license would be highly detrimental to that community.

Because General Manager Forsyth had neglected to insert the name of the Maple Run Coal company as the owners of the property in the application, the legality of the petition was attacked by the attorneys for the Dry Federation. A motion was made by Reed, Boulton & Forsyth who represented the petition asking leave to amend same and correct the defect but this was objected to. Both sides presented their arguments to the court and nothing more was heard of it until Landlord Yavorsky appeared at the Prothonotary's office some time Monday and took out his permit to dispense the ardent and entertain the traveling public. Judge Bell stated that he would file his opinion at a later date.

MANY ACCENTS BUT ALL ARE AMERICANS

With the American Expeditionary Forces at the Front May 10.—By Mail—"You ought to go down and talk to the boys who just came in from the trenches where they beat off a Boche raiding party four times their number. They're down in the ruins of the next village, sharpening their bayonets and getting ready for more. They're all kinds of nationalities, that crowd, and you can hardly understand some of them when they attempt to speak English."

Taking the lieutenant's tip, the victorious doughboys were visited. They were resting in dugouts and ruins, talking over their latest fight, and exchanging ideas as to the best way of killing Germans. More than half of them spoke broken English, and the accents were many. It required the "common cause" for them to understand each other.

One young private who had accounted for four Germans two nights before, resented being asked his nationality. "I'm Italian born, but good American now. I figured it's about time we show damn Kaiser where to head in at, so I join the army." He was one of a number of Italians in the group.

Another big strapping chap admitted he was born in Ireland, but insisted he was American, not Irish. His closest pal through the thick and thin of battle was a Pole. Russia, the Balkans, Sweden and Norway were represented in this small group of doughboys.

One man explained with difficulty he volunteered because Russia quit, and he took it as a personal duty to do his best to offset his native country's failure.

Officers were enthusiastic in telling of the loyalty and devotion of these naturalized Americans. In the group were a number of men of German parentage, all of whom had accounted for themselves well in battle. The universal reason for joining the army was to "lick Germany good" which from their point of view was "making the world safe for democracy." America's wish was their command, as they hid in those ruins from German shells and sharpened their bayonets for more Germans.

WARN AGAINST DISEASE GERMS

Washington, June 5.—That the Germans might have brought disease germs to this country is the belief of some navy officials today. Officially warned all survivors who were on U-boats not to give away as souvenirs any food or other article given them by U-boat commanders. It was pointed out that German sailors took into Spain terms of the strange epidemic which is sweeping that country.

YOKOHOMA MAID WAS HUGE SUCCESS

The Eighth Grade commencement attracted a "capacity" audience to the High school auditorium last night to witness the portrayal of the "Yokohoma Maid" by the pupils under the direction of Miss Lucille McGee. The pretty little playlet was in most capable hands and every feature of the performance was extremely pleasing and most charmingly executed. The Eighth graders acquitted themselves throughout in a highly creditable manner.

The costumes were fine, the choruses immense and the audience showed their appreciation by vociferous applause.

The cast follows:
O Sing A Song A Japanese heiress
Catherine Moore
Kissimce, Her companion
Veda McLaughlin
Tung Waga, Her nurse
Elmira Graham

Hilda and Stella, American tourists
Frances Kennedy
Sara Summers
Takasi, The Herald

Muna Yo, a policeman
Wm Brown
Ah No, a hyphenated Chinese
Harry Katzman
Fateddo, the mayor
Kenneth Wissinger
Knogudi, his secretary
Thoburn Collins
Harry Cortese, American lawyer
Frederick Staver

While all the actors were letter perfect in their parts, Kenneth Wissinger as "Fateddo" was unanimously voted worthy of special mention.

NURSE'S TRAINING SCHOOL GRADUATES

There are seven young ladies in the class. Dr. W. B. Henderson of Phillipsburg will deliver the address to the class and the diplomas will be presented by H. B. Powell, president of the board of directors of the hospital.

Prof. Van Osten's High school chorus will sing and a general invitation is extended to everybody to attend. Admission free.

Washington, June 5.—General Pershing today reported 110 casualties to the war department divided as follows: killed in action 39, dead from wounds 13, dead from disease 6, dead from accidents 3, wounded severely 47, missing in action 2. Five officers are included in the killed in action list. Joseph Schubert of Ford City died of wounds and Joseph Rugh of Emlenton, Pa., died of disease.

TEN YEAR AVERAGE OF WHEAT CROP NOW BROKEN

Washington, June 5.—A bumper wheat crop big enough to break the ten year record was reported today by the food administration officials on receipt of favorable reports from all parts of the United States. The actual yield of both winter and spring wheat will exceed the Department of Agriculture's estimate. Harvesting has begun in California, Texas, Kansas and other parts of the south, and will extend northward through the wheat belt. Winter wheat crop will reach six million bushels if bad weather does not set in just at harvest time.

SECRETARY DANIELS STANDS PAT GERMAN U-BOAT RAID DISCOUNTED

MUST MAINTAIN GENERAL OFFENSIVE

By Arthur E. Mann
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, May 18. (By Mail).—Germany is always on the offensive. When Hindenburg and Ludendorff aren't throwing their troops against the Allied line in France and Belgium the enemy propaganda agents in Switzerland are besieging neutral and Allied opinion with insidious stories of the Central powers' peaceful intentions.

The latter campaign is being reopened with renewed vigor, according to official reports. Anticipating the enforced cessation of the West front battle, Germany and Austria have sent additional legions of peace mongers to Switzerland and these are now engaged in the peace "offensive".

Emperor Karl is personally represented by a very active agent named Bamberger, who is concentrating principally on Italy. He is industriously putting out stories that the much advertised prospective Austrian offensive will take place only if Italy refuses to consider "reasonable" terms from her enemies. So far he is not meeting with much success.

The Italians are confident of victory if the Austrians attack. Their positions have been splendidly organized both for defense and offense and this time there are hardly likely to be any Germans to assist the forty Austrian Divisions on the line.

Same Old Game

The German agents are playing the same old game of putting out fanciful peace terms. The latter include the evacuation of Belgium and France, the return of the German colonies, no indemnities, and a discussion of the future of French Lorraine. These are more or less hackneyed propositions, but there is an interesting addition which is rather significant.

The agents say Germans want to discuss the question of a "revision" of the Brest-Litovsk treaty.

There is sufficient evidence already at hand to prove that Germany has no desire to "revise" the treaty against herself if she can help it, but the political leaders are beginning to worry about the unfavorable impression the treaty has made not only throughout the rest of the world but within the Central empires as well. The German idea is to get a revision of the treaty which will be sanctioned by the Allies in order to strengthen the Pan-German and military parties against the growing opposition of the liberal and radical Reichstag group and particularly of Austria-Hungary.

Worship Ludendorff

Another new feature of the German propaganda is the glorification of Ludendorff. Hindenburg, who has in the past been advertised as the rough, overbearing military hero, is now pushed into the background, and Ludendorff brought forward, not primarily as a great soldier but as a great statesman—a second Bismarck. The German game here is very evident. The Junkers hope, when they have no further use for Ludendorff as a fighter, to introduce him into politics as the man who will negotiate a "strong" peace for Germany. If he can't altogether help them out of the military mess they want him to stand between them and the more moderate German politicians.

The Allies' reply to these latest peace efforts of the Central powers is simply a reiteration of their previous replies:

"Germany knows pretty well what our terms are. If she has any concrete proposals to make, she must put them forward through the legitimate diplomatic channels in plain, unmistakable terms. Until then, war!"

DUTY OF AMERICAN NAVY TO SAFELY MAINTAIN LINE OF COMMUNICATIONS WITH OUR ALLIES OVER THERE

America snapped its fingers at the German submarine threat today. Secretary Daniels issued a statement in which he made it plain that the United States considers as its prime duty at sea to maintain communication lines between this country and Europe. Secretary McAdoo announced a reduction in insurance rates which was 25c per $100, to 15c per $100 on the lives of masters and crews of marine vessels. At the same time it was said that the war risk insurance rate would not be raised.

New York, June 5.—Bringing thrilling stories of Prussian piracy at America's very gate, the weather beaten schooner Eva B. Douglass came in through the fog at New York harbor today with 250 survivors of the steamer Carolina, sunk off Cape May. One hundred fifty-six passengers and 94 of the crew were aboard, including Captain Barbour, and ten American army officers from the military training school at San Juan, Porto Rico. It was towed in by tugs which guarded the vessel for fear the German raiders would attack the rescue ship. Automobiles were waiting for the arrival of the schooner. They were volunteered by the Women's Motor Corps. The Red Cross took charge of the survivors who were taken to hospitals and hotels. Some of those who were weak collapsed. Sunday night a terrific storm came up and sank one of the lifeboats. Nineteen of the 35 in the boat survived. The Carolina complement is now believed accounted for with the exception of the 16 lost in the storm and 16 more not yet checked up.

The steamer Samuel C. Mengel arrived in New York today with a report that a vessel was sunk 175 miles off New York on Sunday. The hull of the steamer Dsauss floated in on the shore at Delaware cape. Officials are convinced after carefully examining the reports of survivors that the Germans are using only 500 and 1,000-ton submarines on this side of the Atlantic and are unable to carry on any protracted offensive against shipping so far from their bases. The eyes of the coast defense many squadrons of airplanes in groups of eight—flew over the stretch of sea in the search for raiders. Equipped with machine guns they are prepared to deal drastically with the submarines. They are closely watching for submarines that will come up for air.

Fears for the safety of the crew and passengers of the steamer Carolina were swept away today when the schooner Eva B. Douglass slipped into New York harbor early this morning with 250 passengers and crew. Sixteen were lost in a storm and 16 others are still unaccounted for.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED?

(By United Press)
Washington, June 5.—More than 1,000,000 young men are being added to the nation's organized fighting strength today, in the second draft registration since the war began.

Every young man who has become 21 years of age since the registration of a year ago, must register. Exceptions are those already in the armed service.

It is estimated registration may reach 1,200,000, and of this number probably 750,000 will be added to the army.

COLORED MEN CALLED

Washington, June 5.—Forty thousand more men were summoned for general military service today to enlist between June 20 and 25. The men called today, all negroes, bring the total number summoned to the colors in June to more than 300,000. The call includes 500 from Pennsylvania to Camp Sherman and 1,000 from Virginia to Camp Sherman.

MANUAL TRAINING EXHIBIT IS FINE

There is an interesting exhibit of the handiwork of the Manual Training classes of the Clearfield High school on display at the Manual training rooms of the new building.

Those who are interested in this phase of school work will find an exhibit of more than passing worth. Victorias, desks and tables made by the older students and bird houses, waste baskets and the like, the product of the younger students all testify to the painstaking care with which Frank Wentzel, the manual training instructor, has guided his charges during the year just closing. The exhibit opened this morning and will continue until tomorrow noon.

A NEW KIND OF PENALTY

A number of business places failed to close their doors on Memorial Day in DuBois and the city council has struck back at these men by deciding to enforce the blue laws. Seems to us a visit from the members of the War Council with a demand that the doors be closed would have been more to the point.

WASHINGTON'S VIEW

Although there were no Y. M. C. A. or similar social welfare agencies at work during the American revolution, the commanding officers of that period were not unmindful of the advantages to be gained by providing wholesome recreation for the soldiers and protecting their morals. In his instructions to his officers, Washington said: "Let vice and immorality of every kind be discouraged as much as possible; and as a chaplain is allowed to each regiment, see that the men regularly attend divine worship. Gaming of every kind is expressly forbidden, as being the foundation of evil, and the cause of many a brave and gallant officer's ruin. Games of exercise for amusement may not only be permitted, but encouraged."

BAKER REVERSED

Statements to the effect that the war is three thousand miles away are no longer in order by our Secretary of War. We imagine we heard Kaiser Bill chuckle when our Secretary spoke in such assuring terms recently and Bill certainly had his little joke when he launched the super submarines on their mission over here to teach our Secretary of War that war was indeed right at our very front door. There would seem to be no criticism attached to the fact that the submarines were able to get to our coast and do the damage that they have wrought and the shelling of the small craft would indicate that they were disappointed in their real purpose which no doubt was the sinking of transports. Germany has caused a great property loss but by her act has taught us a lesson, including our sanguinary Secretary of War who viewed the war with a long distance telescope.

PATRIOTIC PAYMENT OF FAIR PREMIUMS

Washington, D. C., June 5.—Why not give War Savings Stamps to prize winners at agricultural fairs, asks the Department of Agriculture. The Bureau of Agriculture of the Lake Charles, Louisiana, Chamber of Commerce has suggested that all premiums given by State county and other fairs this year be paid in War Savings Stamps. A resolution expressing that proposal was recently adopted by this Bureau of Agriculture and is being sent to all Federal and State officials interested and to the proper representatives of fair associations in every part of the country. The idea is meeting with hearty approval.

Thus the Marine Corps lost a recruiter, Helena lost a postmaster, Recruiter Hamlin lost his fee for the enlistment of applicant Hamlin, but the Marines gained a patriotic recruit.

OBITUARY

GEORGE BRETT

George Brett, one of Bradford township's substantial citizens, passed away at his home in Woodland Tuesday morning, June 4, 1918, at 3 o'clock aged 78 years, 7 months and 20 days, following a general break down incident to his advanced age.

The deceased was a native of County Sligo, Ireland, and came to this country in 1866, locating in Woodland in 1870. Some years later he purchased the farm on Woodland road adjoining the H. M. Kurtz estate farm, and resided there until about two years ago when failing health compelled him to retire and he moved his family again to Woodland.

George Brett was of the rugged type of manhood, a pentameter of the old school. Sober, industrious, God-fearing, he was scrupulously honest and enjoyed the unbounded respect and esteem of all who knew him. He served as tax collector of Bradford township for many years and was always faithful to every trust. He was devoutly religious and a consistent member of the First Presbyterian church Clearfield for many years and on his return to Woodland affiliated with the Presbyterian church of Bigler.

He is survived by two sons, John R. Brett, of Pittsburgh and George W. Brett, of Clearfield, and four sisters, Mrs. Minnie Wilson, of Bradford township; Mrs. Calvin Ackley, of Greenville, Pa.; Misses Katharine and Margaret Brett at home.

Funeral services will be held at his late home in Woodland Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Henderson of Bigler Presbyterian church officiating. Clearfield lodge K. of P. of which deceased was a member will be in charge. Interment in Bradford cemetery.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIER BOYS

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF ELK HOSE CO.

Mr. Leslie Hopfer
Dear Brother—I can find time now to write you a few lines letting you know I am still living and well and hope yourself and all the Boys in the company are the same.

I received the boxes you sent me and sure was glad to get them. The Xmas box was a wonder and the box of tobacco came just in time, as we were going up to the front the next day. We have been up at the front eight weeks and it sure is an interesting place here. Towns are complete wrecks and not a soul living in them but soldiers. I have seen soldiers from almost all the allied countries and find them a real nice set of men, and we find lots of them that talk "American" good.

The Salvation Army, Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. are just behind the third line trenches and work there day and night. The Y. M. C. A. you can find wherever there are soldiers and they are doing great work.

It used to be a rare sight for we people in old Clearfield to see on airplane, but here they are very common. We have some of the Liberty Motor air craft and they are wonderful.

How is our old Fire Chief J. D. Connelly? Still on the job as usual? Gosh, Leslie, I sure would like to see all the Boys and to come and spend an evening at the fire house again. I am hoping for the day when I can do it again.

It will do us fellows good to see a real street with honest to goodness houses and auto, on it for here everything is military wherever we look. The houses are all of stone and no sidewalks and most of the people wear wooden shoes. We can hear them coming for a block or two away. The jeeps there people use are about all hauled by two or four horses hitched tandem.

Well, I guess I will close for this time, hoping to hear from some of you real soon, I remain

Yours very truly

To The June Bride and Her Friends

Conforming with the spirit of the times, the wedding costume and trousseau of the June bride will be chosen with a view to tasteful simplicity and due notice of economy.

The Enlarged Displays of Undermuslins Provided and Advancing Costs Make Immediate Selection the Part of Wisdom

In these war times the foresighted woman does not expect to hear of EXTRAORDINARY AND REMARKABLE price reductions; for she knows that such talk is merely talk and nothing else. She does demand, however, that a store have a full range of sizes and garments that can be depended upon for reliable workmanship and durable materials. She demands full 100 per cent. value for every dollar she spends.

These undermuslins have been arranged on tables and counters so as to allow a complete viewing in one visit. Below are mentioned several groups which give a clear insight into the type of undermuslins you can expect when buying at this store.

A Shipment of New Tub Skirts Priced at $1 to $8.50 Has Just Arrived

Many women have turned to wash skirts in view of the higher costs of silks and dresses and suits. And the additional service these tub skirts afford makes them exceedingly inexpensive. If you have placed aside a moderate sum for furnishing your Summer wardrobe, to buy one or more of these tub skirts is the best investment you can make for the amount. The newest pockets are shown; some exceedingly unique so as to render them distinctive. Materials are pique, warp satin, gaberdine, etc.

More Smocks and Middies

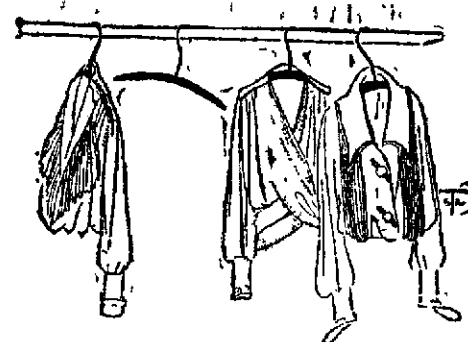

Once having decided that smocks were going to hold first place in the eyes of Fashion for Summer, women have taken enthusiastically to the practical smock. We believe we are justified in saying that our foresight in providing for this vogue early in May has shown women that at this store all fancies can be satisfied. Smocks of airy voiles, sturdy reps and linens, beautiful Jap crepes in a host of new styles priced from 1.50 to $3.95. Also a splendid showing of new middies from $1.00 to $2.00.

Fine White Materials 35c to 1.25 yd.

Included are voiles and batistes in checks, stripes, plain materials, satin stripes, basket checks, and dots. Two and one-half yards for a waist or 4 1-2 yards for a dress is all that is needed, with perhaps a trimming of some sort. And the style you may secure from our June fashion sheets.

White Suitings and Shirtings

In gaberdines, poplin and warp satin. Priced from 59c to $1.25 a yard.

Another Shipment of Waists to Sell for $1.00 Sent by Our N.Y. Buyer

The first went so rapidly that it has taken us a little while to locate another that would cause as enthusiastic buying as the first. These, however, are in different styles; so that if you were unable to take full advantage of the first lot, you can do so now. Values are so pronounced it is not necessary to go into full descriptions of the styles. Suffice it to say that there is ample scope of choice and the styles were made to sell in some stores at twice this price.

Summer Organdie Blouses at $1.95

Fashion places as much faith in this cotton fabric as in its most expensive Summer silks. Organdie is very sheer, feels smooth and lends to the prettiest and daintiest of styles. For the most part, have pin tucking and lace edging as well as those with the new great big collars which reach almost down to the skirt. White, rose, flesh and Copenhagen.

Georgette Crepe and Crepe-de-Chine Waists

Special lots at $3.50, $3.95, $4.50 and $5.95. Beautiful new styles. Colors are flesh, maize, white, etc.
